

In this section, you can configure settings related to the departments used on the sample Intranet portal. The following setting is available:

Departments
Department template path	Alias path of a page that the system uses as a template for newly created departments (together with its child pages).