

Messages application

When selecting a recipient of a Messages application message, you can conveniently switch to the Friends tab and select one of your friends just by clicking their user name.

Fields visibility

Users can set the visibility of some fields on their public profile to Display to friends, which makes these fields visible only to their friends. See Allowing users to change the information they share for more details.