

If you enable the Enable favorites property of the Forum group web part, the system displays forum posts with the Add post to favorites link.

If a user clicks this link, the system adds the respective post to their favorite posts.

If you place the Forum favorites web part on a page, the web part displays links to favorite posts of the current user.