You can edit page type properties in the Page types application, on the General tab of a particular page type. The following topics describe some of the common page type configuration scenarios: