In this section you can find lists of tasks, which we recommend you to perform in the given stages of development.

Security checklist - designing a website

Facts you should consider before you begin developing your website.

Security checklist - developing a website

Things you should keep in mind while developing websites.

Security checklist - deploying a website

Tasks to do before you deploy your site to a live environment.