Users can be notified about new messages received using notification emails.

The settings available in Settings -> Community -> Messaging are related to these notification emails.

General
Messaging sender email	Email address that will be used as the sender address (From field) of the notification emails.
Messaging email subject	Entered text will be used as content of the Subject field of notification emails.