The controls in this section provide paging support to other controls that display data. This means they divide the displayed items into groups (pages) and provide an easy way to navigate between them.

> ✅ Tip: The newest, most flexible and easiest to use is the UniPager control. It provides most of the functionality of the other two and more, so we recommend using it whenever possible.

Available controls:

- UniPager
- DataPager
- TemplateDataPager