In this section you can adjust settings that relate to the integration of Kentico with social media.

In the Default URL shortener category, you can set up the default URL shortener that the system will use to shorten links posted to social media.

The default shortener appears as the default selection when posting to a social network in the Facebook, Twitter, or LinkedIn applications.